Presidents Letter

The Genealogical Society of Siskiyou County has lost a very special member. The Society is dedicating this edition of the Heir-Lines to the Memory of June Severns. She has been a member for many years and will be missed by many. She was very proud of her heritage and loved to talk about her family.

October being Family History Month is a very busy time for the Center. The recognition of the research of our family histories nationally is a great inspiration for us to work on breaking down some of those brick walls we have in our lines.

The Society is participating in the celebration, starting out with a seminar on October 3rd. It was well attended and all came away learning something new. Thanks to Patricia Healy and Jennifer Bryan for giving three very good classes. Those of you who were unable to make it missed some very good hands on information. The Research Center is also offering free research time for non-members, there has been a good response. This is also a good time to talk to your neighbor, hair dresser, the receptionist, clerk at the store, and others to get started working on their Family History.

The Research Center is very active when it is open. The Public is learning that we are here and able to help with their research. Opening on the first and third Wednesday of the month has been a good move. People were waiting when the Center opened last Wednesday. Would like to thank the volunteers for giving their time, everyone has something to offer.

Our Web Site is a work in progress, so keep your eye on what is new. The activity for new research is picking up with people going to the web site. Donna is working on getting new information on the site. She is starting to put the indexes to the obituaries in. Speaking of the obituaries the new paper clippings project is coming along at a fast pace, we are up almost to the nineteen nineties. Good job!

There is several new research materials added to our shelves. The 1949 Yreka City Directory, four books were donated by Hattie Caldwell Davis on Haywood County, North Carolina. These books not only give many family histories, but the way they lived in the Smoky Mountains. Good Reading! Two members are working on getting the Marriages from the Little Shasta Church. If you have any books that you are not actively using think about donating to the research center.

Happy Researching Glenda Doughman, President

Heir-A-Parent

The following story of the Bennett & Finley History is courtesy of Lucy (Harris) Moore
Louisa (Finley) Bennett is Lucy's grandaunt
This is 1st part of 27 Pages 5-10 in this issue
Pages 11-27 will be in future issues

Of the Compton children I remember the names of Lucy, about mother's age, her dearest friend and died the same year mother died, married a Mr. Lehigh, Mary married Mr. McKinney, Ben, Louise and Al, may the Lord bless them one and all for their kindness to the orphan in days long past.

Mr. and Mrs. Compton have long since passed away. Father and mother were married May 28, 1861 in Arcata, Humboldt County, California, at the home of Isaac Coolberg. This Mr. Coolberg was a native of Sweden, a rich merchant and a cultured gentleman. He had the most charming manners. He and his wife were very kind to Lydia.

My father took his bride to Sawyer's Bar where he had provided a nice house. The only means of travel was on mule back over the mountain trails, but as Mother was fond of riding this could not have been a hardship. My parents lived in this house for two or three years and here the two older children, Louisa and Herbert Wyle were born. Father then sold the store and moving to Clapboard Bar engaged in mining.

My first impressions or recollections are of Clapboard Bar. As soon as I was able to talk my mother taught me the alphabet. I cannot remember when I could not read. I recall the time my oldest brother was learning his A B Cs from the same old blue-backed Websters spelling book. He was a very little boy and he was evidently discouraged. He wore a sort of green blouse and was carrying his spelling book by one cover and saying, "I can't". Mother was ironing and answered very kindly, Yes you can, that is what Lisa said and now she knows them all."

In those days fruit was scarce; there was none raised on Salmon river. A red apple was a rarity indeed. I believe all we had must have come from the lower countries or from Oregon. When such a treasure reached us it was divided carefully among the children. I remember Father peeling an apple, carefully dividing it into neat sections and distributing the pieces to his waiting youngsters.

Joe and Bessie were born on Clapboard Bar. My parents moved across the river to Perdiedo flat. Father had built a comfortable log cabin and here we lived for some years. I remember a fine vegetable patch and Mother's flower garden. She loved flowers. She sent to Jas. Vick, Rochester, N. Y., not having a catalogue she sent a dollar requesting him to send seeds for a flower garden and she received a great assortment and had a flower garden which was greatly admired.

I think a pepper grass. I remember Mrs. Bigelow told me it was good to eat on bread and butter, so went to Mother for a slice, pulled up the plant, and found bread, butter and pepper grass rather a poor lunch.

There was a fireplace in the front room of this house. An open fire always seemed to me a most desirable thing in a home. So many fond and sad associations cluster around the hearth stone like an altar whereon sacrifice is daily and nightly offered to the household gods. I remember we were all sitting around this hearth one evening and Father returning from the postoffice and seating himself by the fire said sadly, "My Father and Mother are dead" and the awe which I felt but I could not understand. This must have been in 1868 or 1869.

This venture in mining was not very successful. Mr. David Morey was Father's partner for a time, then he and Mr. H. W. Doty were partners. From this time I started to school. My first teacher was Miss Lily Bigelow who conducted a private school for a short time and then I went to the public school, A. Hartz teacher. Mr. Hartz was a highly educated french man who taught languages in addition to the regular school course. Herbie took Latin and I French. In those days one would deem it a great honor to take a small brother or sister to "visit" the school, that is, one too young to attend regularly. I took Joe one day, a chubby little chap three or four years old, kept moving from one seat to another. The teacher said, "Did not I tell you to sit still?" Joe replied, "Well I forgot" and the teacher said, "Why you haven't a memory as long as my little finger". Never will I forget how indignant I was at such a slam on Joe. Mr. Hartz was, however, a good, kind teacher. We studied Wilson's speller and readers. Sargent's reader came first in my experience. I recall the time when this reader first I came into my possession. Memory brings back the old store - dry goods, groceries, mining tools; H. C. Bell proprietor, my father's dearest friend, a Maryland gentleman, very dignified and polite.

Father told me to let Mr. Bell see how well I could read and the piece selected "Perseverance is the Secret of Success", which I stumbled over with carefully spaced syllables.

Sam and Mary were born while we lived at Perdiedo. In 1871 Father moved the family back to Clapboard Bar, and the rest of my brothers and sisters, except Harry, who was born in Etna Mills, were born in Clapboard Bar. Father worked the mine on lower end of this Bar. Here we spent the remaining years of my childhood and youth. In 1874 I commenced to keep a journal

The children of S. L. and Lydia A. Finley were: Louisa, born April 16, 1862; Herbert Wyle, born October 28, 1863; Joseph Wilson, born February 24, 1865; Elizabeth, born July 15, 1866; Samuel LaRue, Jr., born December 5, 1867; Mary, born June 25, 1869; Phillip Henry, born March 21, 1871, died October 11, 1892; Hattie Frances, born November 20, 1872; Robert, born October 4, 1875; Lydia Ann, born January 8, 1877; Francis, born July 19, 1878; Gertrude, born June 18, 1880; David Harrison, born January 25, 1888. When I was nineteen my Father took me to Yreka to the county examination. I took a second grade certificate and taught school for two years. The first was a private school at Sawyers Bar for three months in the summer of 1881. That winter and the next spring the public school at the Forks of Salmon. I boarded with the family of W. P. Bennett.

Here I met my future husband and we were engaged the next spring. The next fall I went to Lowden district in Seiad Valley on the Klamath. I boarded in Seiad Valley with the W. F. Grider family. They were Southern people, very kind and hospitable. This was the first school in this district.

My people moved out to Etna Mills late that fall while I was teaching at Griders. Charlie had charge of W P. Bennett's pack train and the folks came out on this train. They were on the road nearly two days. When my Father went to make arrangements with Charlie to move his family to Etna, Charlie took advantage of this opportunity to ask my father's consent to our marriage.

We were married May 2, 1882, H. C. Bell died the same day. My father had built a new house in Etna and I stayed with them that summer and that fall we moved into the Sanders house. The winter of 83 and 84 Charlie made two trips into Oregon looking for a location.

In the summer of 1884 he worked in Clapboard for my father. In the fall of '84 he went back to work for W. P. Bennett and had charge of the pack train in '85.

February 6, '85, he broke his leg in the Bloomer mine and was laid up for some time. The "giant" was not set securely and the pressure when the water was turned in caused it to tip and something thrown by the stream of water struck him on the leg. My father came down to Oliver's flat as soon as he heard of the accident. Father's health had been poor for some time. He had two paralytic strokes, which passed away and now had spells in which his limbs gave way suddenly and he would fall and would also shake like a leaf for several minutes.

In April we moved back to Etna and lived in the Dick

On the 23rd of June a mule kicked him in the face breaking his jaw. He lived on liquid food for some time.

In June 1886 we moved to Alkali Valley, Oregon. Charlie had taken up a homestead there. We left Etna on the 23d of June Father came out with the mail the day before so he was there with the rest of the family to bid us goodbye. We went in a big wagon and had an uneventful trip. We did not like this country so about the last of October '87 we went back to California.

Charlie bought a ranch from H. Morris on Moffitt Creek. In March, 1890, he sold this ranch to his brother Marion Bennett and we moved back to Etna. While we were living in Etna Mother had a sort of sunstroke; was working in the garden and got overheated and after she got up she was taken by an attack of sciatic a and had a bad time.

Charlie worked at Sackmans and George Smith's ranches. On October 26, heard of Annie M. Hickey's death on October 15. The first of my class to go. Her brother Walter followed her to the grave in eight days.

In June, 1891 I find recorded - Last Winter was unusually mild; in fact we had no winter to speak of - so had to take our winter in May and June. The weather was much like November, so cold the gardens stopped growing.

January 29, 1892:

I copy from the Yreka Journal - Dr. C. A. McCash aged 42 years, a resident of Sawyer's Bar some years ago, died on the 19th inst.

February 9-1 copy again from the Yreka paper - Prof. A. Hartz was found dead in the snow near Carr's in Trinity Valley, was returning from Trinity Center and must have perished from exhaustion as he must have been over seventy years of age and very feeble. Thus perished my old teacher. He was a native of France, a man of much natural ability and finely educated. May he rest in peace.

On March 23, 1892 we moved to the Sweet ranch on the East Fork of Scott river. We lived on this place until the fall of 1903 when we moved to Etna for a few months, and then to Chico.

October 15, 1895, we heard that my brother Philip had a

Yes, Bessie, my trip to Sawyers made me homesick, if homesickness is the right name for a longing to live once more the bright hours of long vanquished childhood days. To breathe once more my native air, to view once more the old familiar scenes, to see once more in their old places the dear home faces, all these brought back the past, the lovely careless past.

Tis said that Distance lends enchantment to the view, so if anything unpleasant ever happened it has vanished with the lapse of time. Or, perhaps, as the griefs of childhood are but trifles (however important they may appear at the time), just the passing of a summer cloud and then the sun shines out again, so our childish woes passed with the trifling incidents that caused them, leaving only bright and beautiful memories. From Louisa.

While we were gone on this, the children kept house and did splendidly. Lucinda was only eleven at this time. The Sweet ranch will always seem most like home to the older children. The boys grew here under the watchful care of a wise and loving father. Each of us did our best to do our duty as we saw it. The children were all taught to work.

One of our summer sports was the annual "corn feast". Where roasting ears were ready, we took a great sack of corn with great store of butter and other provisions and went up Hay Gulch and had a picnic. After the hay was cut Charlie used to take the team and haul freight. Finley, when he was old enough, went with him, driving two horses and afterwards Claude went.

In 1896 we went to Sawyers Bar to spend the 4th. We got up at 1:30 and drove upon the mountain where we stopped for food and rest. Then we went on, reaching Clapboard at 3:30 p. m. We had a good visit, the children had the greatest time they had ever had in their lives. Going back we camped under a maple tree about two miles from Callahan's ranch and got home the next morning at 8.

While in Sawyers I saw our old friend Mr. Nicolet. On the 15th I received a letter from mother telling of his death - sudden - while he slept. We saw him on the Fourth. He came to the house and we talked a while on the old front porch for the last time. One by one they drop out of the ranks, these old friends and neighbors. But poor Mr. Nicolet, it seems like an old landmark gone to know he is no more.

April 12, 1897, I note that we sent eight children to school and the ninth cried to go. My father passed away September 18, 1901. I was at the old place. He died of enlargement of the heart. He was buried in the old graveyard at Sawyers Bar. He was the kindest and best of parents.

On the 14th of November my Mother passed away - heart failure. Charlie brought me the dreadful news and we went over there as fast as possible. She was buried beside my Father. Thus passed the truest and kindest of mothers. The next year my brother Philip died and now lies beside mother.

In 1903/04 we moved to Chico. Left the last of the year and got to Chico the first of the New Year. Charlie went down first, went about the middle of December and rented a house for us. We lived there until May 28 and then moved out to the place Charlie had bought. Charlie went to work for the C.M. Co. The boys went to work for the Nursery Co. and after a while for the D. M.

Lucinda and J. F. Chester were married the next December. Finley and Helen Gibson the last of September, 1907. Hattie, Jesse, LaRue and Lee were all married inside of fourteen months.

In September 1915 Charlie, Edith, Margery, LaRue and his wife and myself went to the big Fair at San Francisco. The next spring we went to Klamath Falls. Charlie had rented the stable from his brother. We went some time in March.

Charlie's health failed the next fall, so in November we came back to California. Lee was with us, she had come for a visit and returned to California with us and remained with us through the winter. We came to Yreka to see Finley, then to Corning to see Lucinda and finally to Sacramento. Edith had gone back to Chico in September.

Charlie went to Dr. John White. He sent him to the hospital. He soon told us there was no hope for him, he had cancer or the liver. About Christmas we took him out of the hospital and lived in apartments.

He suffered fearfully and bore it all with patience and fortitude. We lived with Claude and Lee and Lucinda came and j stayed with us. The middle of February he expressed a wish to go home and we went back. He had sold our place so we took apartments and there he passed away on the 21st of February, 19

1917. He was conscious up to the night before he died and was calm and patient - passed away fully trusting in our Blessed Lord. The children were all there but Jess, who came the next day, and Louis who was in the army. We laid him away in Chico cemetery to await the coming of our Redeemer. He was the best and truest man that ever lived, a member of the Baptist church and a good Christian.

Obituaries

From the Siskiyou Daily News - Wed. Aug. 5, 2009

"Grandma" June Severns

Longtime Montague resident, June Elizabeth Severns, passed away peacefully in her home at the age of 90 on Aug. 2, 2009 after a brief battle with cancer.

June was born June 14, 1919 to Bess and Hugh McCombs in Covelo, CA. She graduated from Hoopa High School before attending Humboldt State University as a physical education and social science major. While pursuing her education, she met her husband, Keith Severns, a rancher. After their marriage in 1939, Keith and June moved to Montague in 1940, where they built a successful ranch and raised their son, Daryl and daughter, Karen.

An extraordinary woman, June was not only a model for women of her generation, but a true inspiration for women of the generations who followed her. Never one to stand idle, June was involved in countless endeavors that sought to better the community, educate and support young people and honor events and people of our past. Some of the organizations and institutions that were fortunate enough to feel June's influence were the Siskiyou County Sheriff's Posse, Montague Junior Rodeo Association, Daughters of the American Revolution, Montague 4-H, Trail Riders, Siskiyou County Women's Bowling Association, Genealogical Society, and the Siskiyou County Museum Society.

In addition to her volunteer work, June also influenced thousands of children. She was the bus driver for Willow Creek Elementary School for more than 40 years. She helped to guide the educational success of Yreka High School during her 56 years tenure as a Yreka High School Board Member. In fact, June earned the distinction of being the longest serving board member in the state of California. Commitment, integrity, education and history were extremely important to June, which is clearly evidenced by her lifelong involvement with so many organizations.

June's greatest labor of love however, was her family. Grandma June somehow managed to maintain an unbreakable family bond with several generations of her family by bridging not only generational gaps, but geographical distances as well. Grandma June worked tirelessly to record her family's history as a legacy for her family.

June was preceded in death by her husband Keith, her son Daryl, and her sister Evelyn Dieke. June will be remembered with much love and admiration not only by all those in the community who benefited from her unselfish efforts, but by her daughter and son-in-law, Karen and Sonny Currie; her brothers, Jimmy and Bev McCombs and Packy McCombs; her daughter-in-law Sue and Gene Spencer; her grandchildren, Smoke and Vicki Currie of Yreka, Troy and Ben Baker of Susanville, Code and Chela Currie of Montague, Shannon and Shannon Currie of Grenada, David Lee, Rita Rose of Big Springs, Diane and Chuck Wheeler of Arizona, Dale Rose of Alaska, Donya and Reese Sarti of Mount Shasta, Shawn Spencer of Idaho; 18 great-grandchildren; three great-great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. on Friday Aug 7, 2009 at Girdner Funeral Chapel with burial at Little Shasta Cemetery. A potluck celebration will follow the services.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the June Severns Memorial Scholarship Fund, United Scholarship Inc., P.O. Box 1328, Yreka, CA. 96097

Girdner Funeral Chapel is honored to handle June's funeral services.

How to Tell Where a TRUE Genealogist is Buried

Face of Stone

Back of Stone

From the Arkansas Genealogical Society Ezine

Sometimes you see a headstone and you know from the rich detail that the person who put that stone up was a seriously hard-core genealogist. Well, Betsy Mills, ARFenWeb State Coordinator for the USGenWeb Project (also the County Coordinator for the Nevada County County ARGenWeb), put up a stone for her parents that must be at the top of the list as a true genealogist's project. Her mother was active in several lineage societies and left instructions for Betsy to include those emblems and pedigree chart as well. Here are photos of the front and back of the stone. It's in New DeAnn Cemetery at Prescott, Arkansas.

People, this how WE want our stones to look!
