January 2012 President's Letter

Happy Anniversary! 2012 is the 40th Anniversary for the Society. Genealogical Society of Siskiyou County will be celebrating ALL year long. We will be offering free research, free oral history recordings, free Family Tree Maker education. I wish to thank the founding fathers of GSSC for starting this wonderful organization. We will be honoring the founding members March 31st with a memorable potluck, everyone is invited, send us your old Society photos and help us remember.

2012 is going to be a researcher's dream year with some very interesting free research opportunities. To start the 1940 US Census record will be released in April 2012 and will be available free to all on Ancestry.com. There will not be an index for the records until later but there are some websites out there with tips on how to research without an index. Check out www.familysearch.org, under the Learn menu there are helpful hints. Also check out the following site: http://www.ancestry.com/wiki/index.php?title=1940_U.S._Census.

Happy Researching

PRIVATE EBENEZER BARROWS by Wilogene Simpson

General index card number 3314 identifies Ebenezer Barrows as a private from Van Ness' New York Regiment in the Revolutionary War. The National Archives at Washington, D.C. give the following information: Van Ness' Regiment, New York. Ebenezer Barrows appears with the rank of Private on a Billiting Roll of the Ninth Regiment of Albany Militia ordered to Hunt for & apprehend Tories in Kenderhook and Kings Districts from 5th d. of October & onward as Below, (Revolutionary War) from 5th day of October, Roll dated Albany, Nov. 3, 1776. Number days billitid, 4. Billiting Per Week, 0.4.8. Amount of Billiting, 0.2.8. And also: Ebenezer Barrows Appears with the rank of Private on a Return of a Detachment of the Ninth Regiment of the Albany Militia ordered to Hunt for and apprehend Tories in Kenderhook & Kings Districts in the County of Albany, Revolutionary War, from the 5th of October to the 16th day of said month, 1776, inclusive. Return dated Albany, Nov. 5th, 1776. Time of Entering Service, Oct. 8, 1776. Time of leaving service, Oct. 16, 1776. Number of days in the service, 9. Wages Pr. Day, 1 slash nine and 1 slash three. Amount of wages, 0. 16.0. This information was from a copy (made in the R. and P. Office, War Department, in October, 1896) of an original record borrowed from the State of New York, R. and P. 454,712.

Ebenezer Barrows' father was James Barrows (Plympton, Massachusetts Vital Records to 1850, and State Library of Columbus, Ohio.) James married Tabithe Richards on November 3, 1726 at Plympton, Mass. James and Tabithe had 7 children, all born at Plympton, Mass. Lydia was born in 1731, Kezia in 1732, Elezer in 1734, James in 1734, Elezer on Feb. 12, 1734 and James on Dec. 17, 1734.) Ebenezer, the subject of this sketch, was born on Nov. 4, 1736, Andrew in 1748, and George in 1750.

Ebenezer Barrows married (1) Polly Hewitt and (2) Elise Hoose. His children were William, George (my line) Henry, James, Salome, Polly Mary, Ebenezer, junior, and Susie. His sons, George William and Henry came to Ohio in 1797, settling in or around Gallipolis, Washington County. They returned about a year later and brought out the rest of the family. Ebenezer is listed in the 1790 U. S. Census from New York, Hillsdale Town, Columbia County. He was a soldier in the French and Indian War as well as the Revolution. (Walkers History of Athens County, Ohio.) To quote from this book page 445: The Barrows brothers, William, George and Henry, came to what is now Canaan township in 1797, and settled near where N. O. Warren now resides. During the next year they brought out their father, Ebenezer Barrows, and the rest of the family from the east. The old man had been a soldier in the French and Revolutionary Wars. His descendants are widely scattered through Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Iowa. One of his daughters, Mrs. Ebenezer Culver, is living in Upper Sandusky, Ohio, aged ninety years. Two of his grandsons, Voltaire and Massena, own the old Barrows' mill on Federal Creek. Perry Barrows has a farm near the mill tract. These are the sons of Henry Barrows. Several of the children of George Barrows survive. Parker, now seventy years old, is a respectable farmer of Canaan township. Orange and George, also farmers, live in Rome township, the latter on the old farm. Between seventy-five and eighty of the descendants of Ebenezer Barrows, are known to have served in the Union Army during the late rebellion. (This book was published in 1869.)

Ebenezer Barrows' son George was born in New York in 1772. George Barrows married Eunice Culver who was born in 1775. Their children, not in the order of birth, are as follows: Orange, Hannah B., Susannah, Parker, George, Jr., Albert Gallatin, Parmelia, Charlotte and Elvira.

Following my line is Albert Gallatin Barrows, born in 1809. On Nov. 23, 1833, he married Clarissa Allen, thus tying in with the family of Revolutionary War soldier, Col. Abraham Bird of Shenandoah County, Virginia, for which, see next sketch.

Albert and Clarissa had eight children, Horace Curtis, 1835, Mary Eunice, (my line, she is named for both grandmothers) 1837, Lucy Amanda, 1839, Francis Quivera, 1841, George Augustus, 1846, James Edward, 1849, Morton Harley, 1853, and Rose Alice, 1858.

Of interest may be a letter written by Rose Alice Barrows (who married Will Windon) She is the daughter of Albert Gallatin Barrows and sister of my Great-great Grandmother, Mary Eunice Barrows Place. The letter is dated August 26, 1937.

"William Barrows, your father's great-grandfather's family, were the first ones to come from the state of New York to make their home in the wilds of Ohio. They were overtaken by winter in the mountains of Pennsylvania and had to remain there until spring, and Jacob was born there. In the spring they built canoes and started down the Ohio River and someplace along the journey the canoe that William's wife was in upset and the basket" (Aunt Rose Place tells the story--the tub, or keeler) "upset that had Jacob's clothes in went floating off down the river. What do you suppose the poor baby wore then until they could get another supply. No towns along the river where they could stop to buy anything. They got as far as the mouth of Big Hocking and went up that stream and settled there. I don't know where William's family had their home, but my grandfather, George Barrows, owned a farm about 21 miles below Athens, but there wasn't any Athens there then. Some relatives that was a good deal older than I said they took the first corn they raised to Charleston, West Virginia to get it ground and that my grandfather walked from where he lived to Kentucky to get a few head of cattle for his farm. He crossed the river at Pomeroy when there was but one house there and that was where the man lived that set him across. I think Henry Barrows' family settled about the mouth of Federal Creek, but I never knew much about that branch of the family. I expect your mother would know where my grandfather's home was, for it is the farm that Hamy Montgomery owns and is up above Frost quite a little piece on the other side of the river."

Albert and Clarissa's daughter Mary Eunice Barrows married Lewis D. Place Dec. 14, 1857 in Gallia County, Ohio. Their first child was my grandmother, Ida Louise Place. Mary Eunice died at the birth of her second child, a son, Charles Place, my dad's "Uncle Charlie Place." Family history says this happened when she was in a buckboard, retreating down the Little Kanawha during the Civil War. The rest of this line down to me has already been given on page 35 of the Spring 1976 issue of The Genealogical Society of Siskiyou County's bulletin.

JOHN PARROTT'S Revolutionary War Service submitted by Mrs. C. B. Ward (Beatrice Parrott) and Mrs. Myrtle Parrott (Mrs. Albert Parrott).

John Parrott was born in New York City or England on Sept. 13, 1745 and died in Earnesttown, Ontario, Canada on Jan. 13, 1830. He married Miss Ruth Treadwell of Maine.

John Parrott enlisted as a private May 12, 1781, and was discharged Dec. 12, 1781, from the 4th Co. Capt. Dimon, 5th Regt. Conn. He re-enlisted in another formation of the 4th Regt. and drew pay from Jan. 8, 1781 to Dec. 31, 1783, and was a pensioner under the act of 1818 as published in Public Documents of 1st Session 16th Congress. This information was obtained from "Connecticut Men in the Revolution".

His wife's grandfather was in the same expedition. He was Samuel Treadwell. The company was formed in Fairfield Co., Connecticut.

John Parrott was a Sea Captain. He lived in New Hampshire after the close of the war until 1803. His brother, James, a Loyalist, had received large grants of land in Canada for his services for the English. He became quite wealthy and having no heirs nor children, induced his brother John to move to Canada to be near him. He was to give his brother John his wealth upon his death. Their sisters were unhappy over the will and went to court, breaking the will. John then became poor and "earned his bread by the sweat of his brow".

The service for John Parrott was established for DAR in 1902 by his descendant Miss Emma Jane Reaney of Senneca Falls, New York. Her national number was #41036.

John remained in Canada having sons John, James, and Roderick. Charles Booth Parrott late of Etna, California, descended from Roderick. He left Kingston, Canada, at 18 years and finally arrived in Scott Valley. He had learned the milling trade from his father who operated a flour and grist mill in connection with his farm. Charles followed milling, farming and lumbering until his death 6/18/1927. After residing in Scott Valley for a time he decided to become a United States citizen and was naturalized in Yreka Court, July 21, 1884. He married Miss Mary Rose Meamber in Dec. of 1885. One child was born, a son, Albert Francis. Albert married Miss Myrtle Hathaway Dec. 30, 1918. Five children were born to them: Beatrice Susan Ward, Mildred Maud Thomas, Frances Adelia Sheppard, Albert Ellis and Ann Elizabeth Waterman. Albert Parrott passed away on October 10, 1970 and rests in the Masonic Section of the Evergreen Cemetery, Yreka, California.

CAPTAIN JAMES MOORE by Josephine Parker Kinney

My ancestor, James Moore, progenitor of The House of Moore, migrated from Ireland to Chester County, Pa. in 1726. He married Jane Walker in April of 1734. He had ten children of whom Captain James Moore was the 6th, born in Chester County. Captain James Moore married Martha Poage and settled in Abb's Valley, Virginia, where he farmed and raised horses. He served as a private soldier under Gen. Andrew Lewis at the battle of Point Pleasant on Oct. 10, 1774, and on April 3, 1778, was commissioned a Captain of Militia on the waters of Bluestone. On March 15, 1781, he and his company of riflemen did valiant service at the battle of Guilford Court House under Gen. Nathaniel Green, William Campbell, Colonel.

In July, 1786, a party of forty-seven Indians of the Shawnee tribe came into Abb's Valley. On the morning of the attack, Captain Moore, who had previously distinguished himself at Alamance, was at a lick bog a short distance from his house salting his horses when two men who were at work in the field saw the Indians coming down the hill toward Captain Moore. He was shot through the body and died immediately. Two of his children who were returning home from the spring were killed about the same time. The hired men fled to spread the alarm and the Indians then sacked the house and took his wife, a hired girl and four other children captive. With the exception of the hired girl and Mary Moore, they were all killed by the Indians. The oldest son, James, had previously been kidnapped by the same group of Indians at about 1:00 P. M. on September 7, 1784. He remained in captivity until Oct. 1789 and returned to his home in Tazewell County three years after the murder and captivity of his father and family.

James Moore was married three times and had twelve children. John Shannon Moore, my Great-Great-Grandfather was the tenth. His daughter, my Great Grandmother Margaret Moore first married James P. Ackerly who was enlisted in the Confederate Army on March 15, 1862, but died of yellow fever in May of the same year. They had one daughter, my Grandmother Ella who came to California with her mother and step-father, James Lewis Paxton in 1869 settling in Fort Jones. Ella married Isaac Lee Baker the day after they purchased a hotel in Etna on April 1, 1878. My mother, Maude Baker Parker was the third of five children born to this union.

1. Daniel Whitmore, the son of John and Mary Burnell Whitmore, was born Oct. 6, 1758 in Baldwin, Maine. On April 16, 1782 he married Anna T., daughter of Jeremiah and Mary Hill. In the 1840 census of Pensioners, Daniel Whitmore was listed as aged 81, residence Unity, Waldo County, Maine, and as living with Jesse Whitmore. His service was as a private with the Massachusetts Line. An index of Revolutionary War Pensioners living in Maine showed Daniel was then 75 years old and living in Waldo County. He had lived at Gorham, then Unity. He had 10 children. He died in 1846. A biography of Walworth County, Wisconsin in 1892 for his grandson indicates that Daniel at age 16 took part in the Battle of Bunker Hill. The grandson was named Joseph Whitmore.

2. Daniel's son Joseph Alva Whitmore was born at Gorham, Me. on March 12, 1787. He married Hannah Call of Dresdin. They were pioneers of Spring Prairie, Walworth County, Wisconsin, and he died thereon Dec. 25, 1865. They had 12 children.

History

Historical Happening 1930

E.C.[Edwin Charles] Hart I and his great friend and hunting buddy, from Oakland, John Dumser, were hunting ducks and geese on the ranch. After watching the abundance of Sand Hill Cranes that were in the harvested grain fields, they got the big fat idea - why not shoot one, and have Grandma Kate cook him, so they see what he tasted like.

Well, that almost got them run out of the kitchen, but she said she would give it a try. Grandma Kate cooked that bird for two days, but he was so tough you couldn't stick a fork in him. Hell you couldn't stir the gravy. She fed it to the dog, but he wouldn't touch it. He packed it off and buried it. Needless to say E.C. and his old pal John Dumser never lived that down.

A note about John Dumser. He was a Union Army Soldier, a Drummer Boy, in the Civil War. I had the pleasure of knowing him, and visited with him on his 100th birthday in 1948. President Harry Truman sent a hand written letter, honoring him on his birthday. He was one of the last two survivors of the War. By Ed Hart II

Grandma Kate [Terwilliger] Hart and I Ed Hart II] were coming home from Yreka. On the road from Yreka to Montague, Going east, down Butcher Hill near the Yreka Western Rail Road tracks, we saw, to our right, a band of horses running directly at us, across the open flat. Grandma Kate started to put on the brakes. We missed hitting the main band of horses, but as always, there is one slow one. We hit him broadside, and he landed on the hood of the car. How it happened I'll never know, but the horse bounced off the hood of the car, and kept on running after the other horses. He wasn't hurt, the car wasn't hurt, and Grandma Kate and I weren't hurt, however, our nerves were very rattled. Needless to say, it was a slow and thoughtful ride home. The car was a 1932 Buick Sedan. By Ed Hart II

Recluse Found Dead in Cabin

Leroy Kelly Dies of Heart Failure

Leroy Kelly, who has been living in a cabin on the Yreka flats, west of Yreka, failed to come down to the Bee Hive, as was his custom, the first of the month. Eugene Dowling, fearing that there was something wrong, asked Peter Mani to go to the sheriff's office and have a deputy go up and investigate. Together with Sam Maggoffey they drove up to the cabin and raising a window saw Kelly laying on the bed. As they could not arouse him they notified the coroner's office, who found that the man was dead.

Mr. Kelly has been in poor health for a number of months, but would not go to the hospital, preferring to look after himself. He was a native of Oregon and was 70 years of age. For many years he followed mining along the Klamath river and in the Humbug district, but has been unable to follow that vocation for some time on account of ill health. Friends visited him from time to time and he seemed to be getting along all right.

Heart Failure

His death was caused by heart failure which was brought on by his exertion in getting wood during the cold weather, it is presumed. His father, T. M. Kelly is remembered by many old residents as he was the author of a book called "Mucca Scob" which put forth ideas that were hardly practicable.

The funeral was held from the Kunz & Bills chapel yesterday afternoon, with interment in the Evergreen cemetery, where his father and mother are buried. His brother, Eli Kelly, who lives in the Humbug district was present at the funeral.

Mother of Mrs. Cloyd Dies in Redding

Mrs. Thomas Buscomber of Redding, mother of Mrs. Jean Cloyd of Yreka and Mrs. O. G. Wayne of Dunsmuir, passed away at her home in Redding Monday. Mrs. Buscombe has been in poor health for the past two years, and had entirely lost her voice. She understood everything that was said to her but had to reply by signs.

Mrs. Cloyd has spent much of her time with her mother during the past years, alternating with her sister in Dunsmuir. She was in Redding at the time of her mother's death. The funeral was held Wednesday under the auspices of the Rebekahs, Mrs. Buscombe having been an enthusiastic member of that order.

W. B. MCGILL DIES AFTER SHORT ILLNESS

W. B. McGill died Friday, January 19th after a few weeks illness, having suffered a general breakdown.

Mr. McGill was born at Elkins, W. Virginia, in 1854, a son of Rev. G. W. McGill and Mary Morgan McGill, the latter a lineal descendent of Morgan, the famous Colonial days Indian fighter. Mr. McGill's mother used to tell the tales of Morgan's daring and adventures in those far off days, told them just as they were told to her by her mother and grandmother.

W. B. McGill came to Siskiyou in the early 80's and settled in Butte Valley, going into the stock-raising business, later selling out and taking up the furniture business in Yreka, and when he sold that interest he went in 1917 to a ranch on the Klamath river in partnership with Atty. Geo. Tebbe, continuing there until he came to church, Rev. Chas. D. Miller officiating.

Funeral of John Berry Is Largely Attended

The funeral of John Berry, county treasurer, who died in this city Monday, was held from the Masonic temple on Wednesday afternoon and was largely attended by friends from all sections of the county. The services were conducted by the members of Howard Lodge and Rev. Charles D. Miller of the M. E. church.

Interment was made in the Evergreen cemetery. Others of the family are buried in Gazelle, but it is the intention to remove them to the plot in the Evergreen cemetery at some later date.

Man Crushed to Death in Auto Accident Near Gazelle Sunday

Seven Others Injured and Taken to Hospital

Ricardo Giorgis, was instantly killed in an automobile accident about 11 o'clock Sunday night. He was returning with his family and three other children, to his home in Hilt, after day's visit in Weed. With him in his big Paige sedan was his wife, Josephine Giorgis, and their three children Anna, Harry and Gloria. They also had with them Lucy, Katie and Tony Fenimes of Hilt, three children who were friends of the family.

Driving south in a Dodge roadster were Miss Zeida Herr, Mrs. J. L. Wells and Ted Spores, all of Dunsmuir, who had been to Medford to a baseball game. Miss Herr was driving the car. A few miles this side of Gazelle, on a straight-away road, the two cars came together with a terrible crash.

Giorgis was instantly killed, the whole side of his jaw having been torn away. The other passengers in the Paige were thrown out and all were severely injured. Mrs. Giorgis is suffering with a fractured skull and was otherwise badly cut about the head, hands and body. All of the children were more or less cut and bruised, but none of them were seriously injured.

In the roadster, Miss Herr was badly cut on the chest and had severe lacerations of the head and face. Ted Spores received an ugly cut on the head and was also severely cut about the face and hands. Mrs. Wells escaped with only a few cuts which were not serious.

Rushed to Hospital

The two cars were total wrecks and it seems a miracle that all of the occupants were not killed. Four of the injured Giorgis family were rushed to the general hospital in Yreka where they received treatment. The children are all getting along all right but Mrs. Giorgis is still in a precarious condition. The three in the roadster were taken on to the hospital for treatment.

Just how the accident occurred has not yet been ascertained as the occupants of the car were unable to give any testimony yesterday. The inquest on the body of Giorgis will be held today. If the injured people are able to testify and then some light may be thrown on the accident. Giorgis was a section worker employed at Hilt.

Ted Spores is a popular and well known member of the Dunsmuir baseball team, and had been to Medford to play a practice game. The car in which he and the two ladies were in belonged to his brother, Eugene Spores. Both cars were towed to the Travelers Garage and were viewed by throngs all day yesterday.
