GSSC NEWS!

PRESIDENTS CORNER

By Mary Burchfield

Hello Everyone,

Another year has come and gone! I am looking forward to 2016 as being the year I break down some of my brick walls. How about you? We have some classes coming up that are going to help me do just that. We are planning some classes on research using the new technology that is now available to us. Hope you will join me there.

Pat Healy, Gail Platt, Harvey Russell and a few volunteers have been working diligently in getting more books on the shelves for our researchers to use. We have also had some new donations of books. So, come check out the new additions. We have lots of information on California, especially Siskiyou County, but we also have many books on most of the other states. There is always a 'helper' there to assist you should you need help in finding anything.

We are still working on getting the small cemeteries of Siskiyou County listed and organized. It is an ongoing work as we get information about unregistered cemeteries on private property. If you know any burials on private property please let us know, but be sure it is with the approval of the owners. If you know the history behind the burials, that is even better. These add much to the rich history of Siskiyou.

There are projects that we would like to undertake, but we need volunteers to help us get them off the ground and going. Check in with us any Saturday and see if there isn't something that might be of interest to you. You would be amazed at how much enjoyment you will get from the work.

I hope you have a Happy, Healthy and successful New Year!!

Mary Burchfield, GSSC President

LIBRARY NEWS

GSSC Library would like to take this opportunity to thank the many book donations that have been dropped off at the center. When donating, please be sure to pick up a donation sheet from the front desk so we can appropriately tag the books with your name! Without caring individuals like you, we wouldn't have the collection we have today! Thank you so much!

Patricia Healy and Gail Platt continue to welcome volunteers for the library! If you have some free time on Tuesday's, come on down to the center. We generally brown bag it for lunch!

We also have books that are available for sale on our shelf that have become a second copy or more. So do check them out for purchase. They are for a nominal fee.

VOLUME TWO

FIRST FAMILY MEMBERS

F - M

Here it is! Hot off the press! Only $40!

Don't forget, we still have the first volume available!

WHO IS THIS? DO YOU KNOW?

PICTURE IDENTITY

We have many photos that are not identified, so we are reaching out to see if anyone may have a clue to who these family members belong. Would you take your chance at helping out? The photos were acquired from the attic of the Forest House owned by the Burton Family in Yreka, CA. These were not regular photos, they were glass negatives that were cleaned up and printed by our member Harvey Russell! He stated that these glass negatives needed to be cleaned before he could work with them to process onto his computer! What a wizard Harvey is! So if you recognize either of these two individuals, please respond! Heavens, we have many more to place on this page! Many thanks!

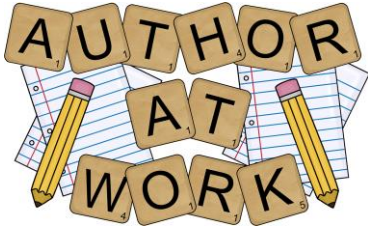

Unidentified!

It is believed that these photos may be from Siskiyou County families.

SGT JAMES BRYAN

By Jennifer Bryan

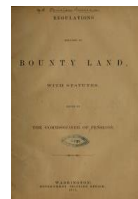

James Bryan was born in 1828, the 3rd born son of 7 sons born to James and Mary Bridget (Whelen) Bryan, in Gorey, County Wexford, Ireland. The family story says that at the age of 14 years, James was indentured to a merchant in Dublin, Ireland. The story continues that he tired of this work and left Ireland on a ship named the 'James Fagan', arriving in New York City in May 1848. In 1849 he enlisted in the Army in Detroit. The Army sent him to Green Bay, Wisconsin to Fort Howard; later his company was reassigned to California. The trip to California started by ship down the Mississippi River, then across the Isthmus of Panama, where illness killed many in the company. Private James Bryan was assigned the task of burying the dead but there were no volunteers. Private Bryan made a suggestion to his sergeant that if he would offer a reward of whiskey, a burial team could be raised. After returning from one of the burial details, Private Bryan found that his good friend, Private James Griffin had been declared dead and wrapped for burial. Pvt. Bryan unwrapped Pvt. Griffin to give him last rites and discovered that he was still alive. Pvt. Bryan nursed his friend back to health and they both arrived in California safely.

But the trip to Fort Jones, was not over. The Army Company was shipped to Fort Vancouver, Washington and then traveled by horseback through Oregon Territory, finally arriving at Fort Jones in 1853. Along the trail both Bryan and Griffin were promoted to Sergeant. The fort was under construction and Sgt. Bryan and Sgt. Griffin were tasked with completion of the fort. Living conditions were rough, food was buried in the ground or smoked for preservation. Water was hauled from the Scott River until a well could be dug. Illness was a constant problem at the fort. Both Bryan and Griffin were promoted to Staff Sergeants and while still employed by the Army, they purchased land together. They made purchases when they had the amount of the down payment ($25). In 1854, when their 5 year enlistment was up, they were discharged and decided to stay in Scott Valley. The two friends ranched the land together for several years.

Another family story told that the land had been gained by homestead laws, which required the homesteaders 'row' around the property. Story goes that when they ran out of water they put the row boat in the back of a wagon and one drove the wagon and the other rowed in the back of the wagon. Good story but alas not true.

In 1855 Sgt. James Bryan was given bounty land in San Joaquin County, 160 acres. It is unknown what if anything that he did with this land until it was sold in 1874. James Bryan traveled to San Francisco on a yearly basis. It was thought he was visiting his brother Patrick there, but he may have been tending to his land as well.

When the partners Griffin and Bryan decided they wanted to start families, they divided the property as evenly as possible. The partner getting lessor land was compensated with extra horses and livestock.

Sgt. Bryan was the first to venture out to find a bride. In 1864 James Bryan traveled to San Francisco and married Mary Josephine Fragley at St. Mary's Catholic Church. Mary Josephine Fragley had left County Galway, Ireland a few months earlier at the age of 17 years, arriving in San Francisco via ship, having traveled from Ireland to New York and then across the Isthmus of Panama to San Francisco. Mary Josephine was 18 years younger than James Bryan. James and Mary Josephine Bryan had 9 children, losing 2 to diphtheria in 1881, dying one month apart. The surviving children married other pioneer families in Scott Valley and Sgt. Bryan gifted a section of land to each child when they married.

Griffin and Bryan remained friends and neighbors the rest of their lives. They each applied for and received Army Pensions. It was discovered that Sgt. Griffin was receiving $12 monthly (he was legally blind); Sgt. Bryan was only receiving $8 per month. So Sgt. Bryan wrote to the military for several years stating he was also disabled and deserved the extra $4 monthly. Sgt. Bryan was repeatedly rejected by the military but eventually succeed in obtaining the $12 monthly pension, 2 months before he died. After that, his widow had to deal with the military and after several years, she also was awarded the $12 monthly pension.

Mrs. Anna Alves Dies at Hospital Of Short Illness

Anna Clara Alves, 85-year-old Yreka resident, died Saturday noon at the Siskiyou County hospital after a short illness.

Mrs. Alves was born at Hawkinsville on January 15, 1870, and had spent her entire life in this area. She was one of a large family of children born to Joseph and Anna Silva, early settlers of this area. Her husband, Joseph Alves, died here in 1921.

She is survived by two sons, Manuel Alves of Mount Shasta and Frank A. Alves of Weed, four daughters, Mrs. Hughes of Grants Pass, Mrs. Margaret Roberts and Mrs. Kate Reagan of Sacramento, and Mrs. Marian Shelley of Napa, a brother, Frank Silva of Yreka; five sisters, Mrs. Kate Mooney of Roseville, Mrs. Minnie McGuffy and Mrs. Carrie Miller of Sacramento, Mrs. Marian Santana of Oakland and Mrs. Mary Foster of San Jose. She also leaves 26 grandchildren and a number of great grandchildren and other relatives.

Funeral services will be held 10 a. m. Tuesday in St. Joseph's Catholic Church with Fr. Patrick McTague officiating. Interment will be in the St. Joseph's Cemetery. A rosary will be recited at 8 p. m. today in Girdner's Funeral Chapel.

Manuel Alves found dead

Manuel S. Alves of Mount Shasta was found dead in his yard last Friday after he left his home to take an after-dinner walk.

He was found lying in a alley near his home at 801 Cedar street at 6:30 p.m. by relatives after he failed to return, the sheriff's office reported. An autopsy revealed that he died of a heart attack.

A life-long resident of Siskiyou county, Alves was born in Yreka on October 8, 1891. He married Ellie Van Doorn in 1943 in Medford. They lived in Edgewood before moving to Mount Shasta and he was a retired laborer for International Paper Company in Weed.

Besides his widow, he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Jeanette Ayer of Mount Shasta and Mrs. Marie Pratt of Vallejo; two sons, Virgil of Sacramento and William of Hesperia; nine grandchildren, one great grandchild; two sisters, Katherine Regan of Sacramento and Mae Hughes of Grants Pass.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from Mount Shasta Memorial Chapel with Rev. Carl Schwarzenberg officiating. Interment was in the Mount Shasta Memorial Park.

MRS. MARY ENOS ALVES, A PIONEER CALLED HOME

Mary Enos Alves was born December 10th, 1857, in the Azores, and was the daughter of Joe and Victoria Enos, who emigrated to America in 1863, arriving in Yreka that same year, going to Hawkinsville to reside, and where the former resided up until four years ago, when she came to make her home in this city. She was a sincere Christian woman, associated in all good works, was charitable and ever kind, and if any of her neighbors were sick she was always there to assist, and she leaves behind a host of friends who can testify to her many good deeds, and a life well lived. She passed from this life Monday, May 2nd at 1:30 o'clock p.m. Five children are left to mourn her passing; Mr. Jos. Deas of Hawkinsville, Mrs. Lawrence Perry of Yreka, Mrs. Joseph Francis of Hill, Mrs. Joseph Silva and Mrs. Tony Perry of Grenada, and one brother Mr. Joseph Enos of Hornbrook. There are also 16 grandchildren. The funeral is announced to take place Thursday forenoon at 10:30 o'clock from the home, with interment in the Catholic cemetery.
